—Over twenty eight columns of Sheriff's sales in this issue.

—Street Commissioner E. Kirkpatrick will put the streets in shape.

—Seems to us this is a good time to do some repairing on the cemetery.

—Bargains at Miss Carrie Fendore's, she is selling really trimmed hats at cost. $1-30

—Financial statement of the county will appear in the BANNER next week.

—The young folks are beginning to count the days until Prof. Lumpkin's school.

—Mr. Jas. Jumpfry called on us last Saturday extending his subscription to 1880.

—Produce of all kinds taken at Lamm's in exchange for his cheap goods. $1-40

—Eg. J. S. Wilson was in Tuesday, and we were glad to see his arm out of the bandages.

—Judge Todd will hold court to-morrow for some special business, not finished last week.

—And still the rush continues at Lamm's everybody goes there for good goods, cheap goods and lots of them. $1-40

—M. J. McClure, Dentist, Lebanon, Mo., will make a professional visit to Tuscumbia, Monday, the 25th inst. to remain five days. Please give him a call.

—Dr. Bradstreet is now the marshal of Tuscumbia, duly qualified and prepared to keep peace and quiet in the town and one mile out side the town limits.

—Green McClure and J. S. Cotton two of the most energetic and extensive stock dealers in Miller county passed here last Tuesday with a large drove of fat cattle.

—As competitors are beginning to realize the wealth and general benefits of the Osage Valley let us go to work and we will in a few years be handsomely recompensed for our labors and light expenditures.

—Persons wanting a good home, or the finest timbered, grazing and wealthiest mineral lands, now is the time to prepare for it, by making a selection of that to be sold by the Sheriff at the Circuit Court.

—We received some of the finest early rose potatoes we have seen, from Mr. A. W. Van Wagner of Union's Ridge. They are an evidence of Mr. V. W.'s ability as a No. 1 farmer, and of the good farm he owns.

—Mr. Mark Fancher, one of Iberia's enterprising merchants called to see us last Saturday, and assured us his town was steadily on the upward tendency, and health good with the exception of a few cases of slight illness.

—Mr. R. E. Guthrie, agent for the Lamotte Nursery, was in town last Saturday soliciting orders for fruit trees. The nursery is in this climate and the trees are much more liable to do well here than trees of another climate.

—Wm. Russell, Jas. M. Houston and Wm. A. Houston called on BANNER office last Tuesday report the farmers happy. They passed here ten days ago with large drove of beef cattle and are now after another drove. They are pumping men.

—We return thanks to our many friends for compliments on BANNER being the best news journal in Southwest, Mo. We intend before many months to make a grand improvement in our printing department if health and prosperity continue.

—The increase of patronage to the Anchor Mills is so great that the proprietors, Messrs. Haunstein, are compelled to put on a double force and run their Mills day and night. The reputation of the Anchor Mills is such that they truly merit this rush of business.

—Large numbers of young cattle and sheep have been driven out of this county, this summer, and have been sold at fair figures—figures that justify our farmers in raising a great deal more stock than they do; and especially here in an unenclosed grazing country.

—Mr. Vandine the contractor for Kansas Pacific and Geo. Ramsey past owner of Steamer Black Hills have been at this place and on the Osage river last week, purchasing and contracting for R. E. ties to be rafted and run to Osage City by Capt. Vandierke of Black Hills.

—Farmers and others who wish to build, now is the time to get lumber at half prices at W. F. Howard's at Tipton, Mo.

—Mr. F. B. Wheeler of Union's Ridge has recently returned from a trip to Kansas, and says he found every thing hard out that way; everything is in a better condition in Miller county.

—Judge Reed and G. W. Graham Esq. of Glee called at BANNER office yesterday report all kinds of business flourishing, they are preparing to erect a cane mill for the insubstantiality of sorghum molasses.

—He is a fool. We mean the man, who lets his baby cry all night in the arms of its mother, and does not sleep a wink, when Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup will quiet the baby by relieving its pain; a bottle costing only 25 cents.

—On last Sunday morning Mr. Louis Lamm bade farewell to Tuscumbia. Every acquaintance was a friend, knowing him to be trustworthy in every department of his life. No one could leave here to the regret of so many as did Louis. We wish him a successful future in his western abode.

—Mr. James M. Morris, principal of the "Ladies Seminary" gave us a call last Saturday. He lectured in the evening on Education and preached Sunday evening. He wishes patronage from the young people of Miller at his Seminary. From his catalogue left with us we infer his school is in a flourishing condition.

—Hon. S. T. Harrison was in town last Saturday. He left with us blanks from the Missouri Immigration Commission, which should be attended to at once, that Miller county may be known not only all over the United States but in many places in Europe as one of the most wealthy counties in the State—of her immense mineral and timber wealth as well as agricultural, grazing and fruit growing advantages.

—The Lamotte Nursery, at Lamotte, Pettis county, Mo., are an old and permanently established firm, growing fruit and ornamental trees, grapevines, small fruits, plants, shrubs, roses, &c. George H. Shepard, proprietor, R. E. Guthrie, agent, will canvass this county during the next two weeks; his samples are very fine, and recommendations from patrons of the past four years is an evidence of the good standing of the nursery, trees delivered next spring in Tuscumbia.

—At the town of Brumley yesterday could be seen Thompson & Bro's store house full of wheat and they had several car loads as the station for shipment; their business generally good. Dr. Conner with patients sufficient to keep him on the go. Mr. Garney has sold his stock, &c. to Dr. Hickman, formerly of Iberia, but will now be located at Brumley; Mr. G. will soon become a grower with his abode near Iberia. The firm of Hart & Popplewell are preparing a few car loads of sheep for market. The school house crowded with students. Blacksmiths and others about the town full of business.

The bar are unanimous in expressing the utmost satisfaction with the manner in which Judge Edwards conducts the business of the Circuit Court. He presides with much dignity, transacts the business before him with becoming dispatch, and by his uniform courtesy and bearing towards all around him secures at once the respect and esteem he justly merits.

The genial Joe E. Edwards, a prominent attorney of Jefferson City is attending court. He is the same jolly Joe of old and one of the best fellows in the State.—California Democrat.
